

Structuring the Home:

A Parent Training

Providing parents of children with special needs the skills to improve consistency between home and school

October 29-30 and November 2, 2009

9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

ESC Region XI

Participants will focus on strategies that enable children who have autism and other behavioral challenges to demonstrate self-control and organizational skills. They will have the opportunity to develop individual schedules, communication systems, work systems, and behavioral reminders. This training is designed for parents. Parents are encouraged to attend with an educator such as an in-home trainer or teacher. School personnel may attend with a parent to help in the implementation of strategies and to ensure consistency between home and school. All participants must register. The fee covers materials.

Cost: $25 per person from Region XI districts; $565 per person from non-region XI districts

You may register online by visiting the ESC Region XI Web site at www.esc11.net. Then click on "Workshops/Logins."

For more information, contact Jill Varley at (817) 740-7586 or e-mail jvarley@esc11.net.